THE ELDEN STREET PLAYERS PRESENT

THE VIOLET HOUR

by Richard Greenberg

Produced by Jeff Boatright (Three Tall Women, Passion, Copenhagen)

Directed by Rosemary Hartman (Three Tall Women)

April 1, 1919, and America is in transition following the Great War. Likewise, the characters are on the cusp of change. A young publisher is anguishing over the decision between which of two books he should publish. After wishing for a crystal ball, a mysterious machine is delivered to his office unordered, and within a few minutes begins spewing out pages filled with information about the future. If you knew the future, would you change what you do today?

Featuring: Ian Brown, Adam Downs, Richard Durkin, Heather Plank, Alana Sharp

For those who want to discuss The Violet Hour, ESP is adding a "Talkback" session after the 3:00 pm performance on Sunday, January 24. The director and cast welcome your questions about this intriguing play.

Produced by special arrangement with Dramatists Play Service, Inc.
